

About UNBA

The Uganda National Biogas Alliance (UNBA) is the umbrella organization for the biogas sector in Uganda.

The non-government, non-profit organization was founded in 2014. Under the vision to “Be a leading driver for a commercially viable biogas sector in Uganda and beyond”, UNBA’s main goal is to promote biogas all over Uganda and improve the business environment of its members. Today the alliance is a representative organization with more than 160 members, and is managed by an executive committee.

UNBA represents the regional biogas associations, including the Eastern Uganda Biogas Association (EUBA), the Greater North Renewable Energy Association (GNREA), the Interregional Biogas Association (IRBA), the Uganda Biogas Association (UBA) as well as the Western Uganda Biogas Association (WUBA).
